I understand the following

Sponsors are expected abide by camp policies of conduct and attire. Sponsors are not required to actively participate in activities but should be in full support of and in the spirit of participation. The camp reserves the right to dismiss anyone without refund who fails to follow these guidelines. Sponsors should be aware Hoosier Hills Baptist Camp is a Christian camp where Christian principles will be taught. Photos or videos that sponsors appear in can be used for promotional purposes without remuneration. Sponsors are fully responsible for medical and health needs. The camp can provide medical care for sponsors for minor injuries or illnesses, but the camp reserves the right to bill sponsors for excessive medical supplies. All on site and off-site medical expenses will be directed insurance policy. Camp insurance coverage is an Excess Plan only. In case of a medical emergency, sponsors understand that every reasonable effort will be made to inform necessary contacts. If contacts cannot be reached, sponsors give permission to secure reasonable medical treatment. If sponsors have a communicable disease, sickness, or lice and/or nits, the camp reserves the right to take appropriate precautions, including dismissal. Any claims will first be submitted to the sponsor's insurance carrier. Sponsors agree to hold the camp harmless and waive the camp of liability.
